PACKING FOR YOUR KENYAN SAFARI

When travelling throughout Africa, most safaris include chartered flights in small aircrafts. It is important to note that there are strict luggage restrictions to adhere to when boarding these flights.

It is always best to pack less and travel light, and, more often than not, there is a 15-20 kg (33-44 lb) per person luggage restriction on flights to most safari lodges. Guests are also permitted to carry one standard piece of hand luggage (maximum 5 kg or 11 lb).

A soft-sided duffel bag is requested. Many guests arrive with soft bags that have wheels and a hard base. These bags are not suitable as they do not collapse sufficiently, making them too large to fit into small aircraft storage. This often results in guests having to purchase a new bag at the airport.

To avoid this frustration, please remember to pack less, and don't forget that a laundry service is included free of charge at the camp.
